

Woolen Coats For Winter Wear

When Winter's coldest winds are blowing, when snow and sleet are flying, there is only one material of which your coat should be fashioned. Woolens—all wool, not just part wool—will keep you warm and preserve health. And Printzess coats are not merely all wool—they're fashioned of handsomely patterned materials such as you will see but seldom. That's why they are members of the Printzess Distinction in Dress family.

They are priced from $12.50 up.

STATE MEETING ALL THE WEEK

Many Noted Divines Are on the Program for Addresses.

Following directly on the heels of the Methodist Episcopal conference with its hundreds of delegates, Parkersburg will host next week to the jubilee session of the fifth anniversary of the Baptist General Association of West Virginia and the Ministers' Fraternal Union of the Baptist church will be held with the local churches beginning October 13. Over 600 delegates are expected from all parts of West Virginia and great plans are being made for their entertainment.

The Baptist General Association was organized in the first church in Parkersburg in 1865 and on this, the fifth anniversary, it was decided that Parkersburg should be the gathering place of the association.

Several ministers, prominent in Baptist church circles will be present, including the Rev. J. W. Porter, O. D., of Knoxville, Tenn., editor of the Western Recorder; Miss Janet S. McKay, field representative of the Baptist Training Institute of Philadelphia; Fred O. Blue, tax commissioner of West Virginia; the Rev. S. G. Nell, D. D., district superintendent of the Baptist Publishing Society of Philadelphia; the Rev. H. C. Mable, missionary for colleges and seminaries; George H. Brewer, D. D., superintendent of missions in Mexico; the Rev. F. W. Boatwright, D. D., president of Richmond College and the Rev. W. E. Chalmers, international secretary of the Baptist Young People's Society, and many others of equal prominence.

The jubilee session will be presided over by the Rev. T. C. Johnson, Pastor of the Temple church in Charleston and president of the association. The Ministers' Fraternal Union will hold its sessions in the Calvary church. The women's body of the church will meet each evening during the session at the same hour as the men.

The official program is an elaborate affair. The tentative program as given out by the Parkersburg committee, practically complete in full, follows:

BIG POTTERY IS LEASED TO MEYERS

Pittsburg Man Takes over Grafton Concern for Period of Three Years.

GRAFTON, Oct. 9.—The $200,000 pottery plant of the Consolidated Manufacturing Company has been leased by this company to Edward E. Meyers, of Pittsburg for three years with privilege of renewal for a yearly sum of $21,200. The plant is one of the largest and finest in West Virginia and it is stated that it will be put in full operation in the near future.

The fifteenth annual reunion of the family of Absalom Knots was held this week at the home place near this city. The reunion was held on the birthday of the aged gentleman, who has just passed his ninety-fifth birthday. He is one of the few living pioneer settlers of Taylor county and is one of the oldest men in this section.

After having been idle during the summer months and on account of repairs, the Royal Window Glass Company will start its plant here again on November 1, with a full quota of men. It is owned by local capital.

The Monongahela Valley Round Table will be held at Morgantown on November 12 and 13 and a large number of local teachers will attend. The program is now in the hands of the committee and will be published in a short time.

Damages in the amount of $200 was awarded this week in circuit court to Mrs. Julia McCordy against the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company for damages said to be due as the result of injuries received while a passenger on a Baltimore and Ohio train. The original amount claimed was $1,500.

Examinations for mine foremen and fire bosses were conducted here this week at the Willard hotel by the West Virginia department of mines under the personal directions of Chief of Mines Earl A. Henry. A class of one hundred and eleven took the examination, which is the largest in several years.

The suit of Gentry Brothers circus against the city of Grafton will be heard in federal court in the near future. Damages for $10,000 are claimed for the collapse of a condemned bridge, which the circus tried to cross with its wagons, after being warned not to do so by the city officials. The accident occurred ten years ago but the case has never been tried.

Lillian Gaynelle Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Jackson, died this week, aged 23, after an illness of several years. Interment was made Sunday.

Mrs. Martha E. Lewis, widow of the late John W. Lewis, died at the home of her son, Charles W. Lewis, after suffering for several years with Bright's disease. She was seventy-seven years old.

A movement to have a gigantic Halloween celebration this year has already been started and plans are now being perfected. A great number of parades, prizes for the best costumes, etc., are a part of the idea that is being worked out. Several thousand persons paraded last year.

A sensational and mysterious disappearance of twelve-year-old Alma Lee Jones from the home of her sister Mrs. Arthur Adair, of West Washington street, was the source of great alarm to the family this week and an all-day search for her followed. Late in the afternoon of the same day she was found on a lonely road a few miles from the city, wandering about carrying only a few belongings in a bundle. No cause for his disappearance could be learned, as she had seemed entirely satisfied with her home. She was returned home and has not made any effort to leave since.
